2004 National Boating History Symposium

Jeff Beard

Louis Rauh

April 17th, 18th, & 19th brought together a fine group of noted antique and classic boat experts to speak with a group of about 60 antique and classic boat enthusiasts. Participating speakers/presenters were the following:

1. Jerry Conrad - Curator of the Chris Craft collection at the Mariner's Museum in Newport Virginia.
2. Norm and Jim Vanguard - publishers of Classic Boating magazine
3. Tony Mollica - Noted author of books on Gar Wood, Dodge and Chris Craft boat books.
4. Wilson Wright - Founder and director of the Antique (Chris Craft) Boat Club
5. Don Danenburg - Writer and expert on Restoration of your Runabout
6. Don Ayers - Expert and judge specializing on barrel back boats.
7. Paul Miklos - Expert on Century Boats
8. Thomas Holmes - Expert on Century Boats
9. Jeff Beard - President of National Boating History Museum. Amateur Historian.
10. Don MacKerer - Former Chris Craft Co. employee and son of Bill MacKerer who was a major influence at Chris Craft Co.
11. Kevin Mueller - Collector of "Fintastic" boats.
12. Herb Hall- Owner of Sierra Boat Works, Tahoe, CA. and expert on Riva boats.
13. Andreas Rhude- Boating writer and enthusiast.
14. Ed Holm- Nautical images from yachting golden age 1880-1910

A similar event will be held in March of 2006. It is anticipated that the even will be co-sponsored by both the National Boating History Museum and The Antique Boat Museum of Clayton, NY.

The feedback that we have received from participants is that this is not only a very informative symposium, but also great fun. Mark your calendar for the weekend before the Mt. Dora Boat Show (last weekend in March) to attend the next symposium.

RECLAIM THE ESSENCE OF YOUR WOOD BOAT!!

Now is a good time to invest money in your boat. It certainly beats putting it into the stock market. We can install a new bottom on your boat in 45 days!! We use the Smith/5200 system with the inner planking being plywood. Give us a call!!
